
Waymaker Application 2024

Steeprock Bay Bible Camp is an interdenominational camp that teaches the Word of God and principles of Christian life so that children in this area may know Jesus – “The Way, the Truth and the Life” John 14:6

The camp is located on the Steeprock River, 10 miles north and 4 miles east of Mafeking, MB.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

- To see young people grow in their faith in God with a desire to serve Him in the ways that He has called them.
- To increase in knowledge and understanding of the word of God.
- To teach self evaluation and equipping believers with the tools needed for godly living.
- Training in areas of leadership that can be used at camp with a desire to see waymakers become cabin leaders and volunteers in other capacities at camp.

SCHEDULE:

You may attend the program one week at a time. At the end of each week you will be evaluated to determine if you can move on to being a staff member. Some waymakers will need to be in the program longer than others and that is ok. We are all on a journey and this is a great opportunity to learn and grow.

- Please indicate which weeks you will be attending
